OLD BUSINESS:

Paperwork for the fair has been received. The merchant buildings will only be manned in the afternoon and evenings. It is still planned that the church will give away Bibles.

Annual conference delegate Tom Prager is registered for the conference. Pastor Bill will not be attending.

A “Covenant Brethren Church” meeting will be held in May. There is no registration fee. Tom Prager moved to pay expenses for Rick Painter to attend the May meeting of the “Covenant Brethren Church.” Dan Bergman supported the motion. The motion carried.

Discussion was held concerning whether the Beaverton Church truly owns the local church building. In the church documents that were presented nothing is stated that the church has been signed over to the district.

NEW BUSINESS:

Peggy McKimmy brought discussion about the sign in the front of the church and questioned why there was not a digital sign installed in 2014 when the Board voted to purchase one. It was discussed that a digital sign could easily be programmed to advertise planned events that the church is holding. Peggy asked that more information and prices be gathered. Tom Prager will look into pricing and give the Board a report with more information at the next meeting.

Becky Phillips has a skit for Easter sunrise service. She is asking for volunteers to act in the skit. All parts are non-speaking.
