OLD BUSINESS:

Additional CBC and COB informational meetings can be happening in the next few months. At the special council meeting Dan Rossman gave a Michigan District report on the issue of church's leaving the denomination.

NEW BUSINESS:

District conference delegates: It was the consensus of the group that we should send a delegate. Tom Prager will be asked.

The Deacons have proposed a revision of the membership polity to be in the plan of organization. Much discussion was held concerning how the revision would work. Matt suggested we table this issue until the next board meeting since few are in attendance at this meeting.

Hospice requested funds for the Cedar River duck race. Rick mentioned how much Hospice had helped them. The request was denied.

Blank forms for Church bulletins are running out. The bulletin will be printed on plain paper until a decision is made whether to buy more.

Rick proposed that the church get three bids anytime a certain amount of money is spent. Discussion held: Trust the committee in charge of the expenditure to make the right decision.
